

English 9 Honors
Course Outline 2007-2008
C. Mancari

Course Description

The ninth grade English Honors program is an accelerated, sequential program that runs for four years. Students will be exposed to a challenging curriculum in the areas of grammar, literature, vocabulary, and writing which includes the research paper and DSTP (NWEA) preparation. Course work aligns with state and district standards.

Grammar and usage is studied and assessed in various ways throughout the year. Areas of prime concern include subject-verb agreement, pronoun-antecedent agreement, parallelism, shift in tense, and diction.

Composition focuses on the mastery of expository writing with emphasis on the persuasive, the compare/contrast, and the cause/effect essay. Creative writing assignments may include poetry and short stories (time willing). However, a research paper of 1000 words using MLA documentation will be required.

Literature includes the study of drama, short stories, poetry, and novels.

Vocabulary instruction will be taught using the Sadlier-Oxford Vocabulary Workshop Level E. This is done only in the Honors classes. (We charge each student $9.00 at the beginning of the year. Books will be issued upon receipt of payment. Please see me or email me with any concerns on this matter.)

Instructional Objectives (SWBAT) Students will be able to do the following:

1. to apply the fundamentals of grammar into their writing so that their district and state test scores improve.
2. to compose a multi-paragraph essay on demand or as a long range assignment.
3. to research using the library and the computer to produce a research paper using parenthetical documentation as per MLA guidelines.
4. to analyze, discuss, and relate to short stories, novels, drama, and poetry.
5. to read Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet out loud with proper intonation and understanding.
6. to utilize new vocabulary words in a).their writing to increase writing proficiency and b).their reading to improve comprehension.

Student Expectations

Students are expected to do the following:

1. to attend all classes on time. Any excusals from class (i.e. student council, violin, etc.) must be done with prior permission from me. If not, the absence will be treated as a cut.
2. to make up all work within the time frame allowed by the Student Code of Conduct.

3. to complete and turn in all assignments at the beginning of class. Late work will not be given due credit. Tests should be made up within a week of initial administration. (Extenuating circumstances should be addressed to me in a timely manner).
4. to contribute to all classes by paying attention, asking and responding to pertinent questions, and participating in discussions and other group activities.
5. to read books outside of class. (At least one independent reading assignment from the district's Core Reading List will be required.)
6. to write essays and major assignments in blue or black ink. If word processed, remember to double space.
7. to seek help in a timely manner. Please do not be afraid to ask me, your parents, other teachers, administrators, friends, whomever for any type of help.
8. to keep a planner. A small assignment pad in one's back pocket or shirt, to a large spiral sized calendar, to a handheld computerized organizer, or the school's planner would all be acceptable.
9. to adhere to the Student Code of Conduct adopted by the Board and distributed to each student.

Grading (online grades available through eSchoolPlus) information forthcoming

The English marking period grade is based on a point system. The number of points earned during the nine weeks is totaled and divided by the potential number of points to arrive at a percentage.

Grading Opportunities

Earnable Points

Class participation	up to 25 points/mp
Class work	10 points/assignment
Homework	10-20 points
Quizzes	20-50 points
Tests	100 points
Writing Assignments/Projects	20-200 points

The final grade is determined by the average of the four marking periods (20% each), the midterm (10%), and the final exam (10%). A student must maintain a B average to remain eligible for English 10 Honors.

Parents:

Please continue to nurture and encourage your sons and daughters by providing them with supervised study time. Some of you may need to hover, while others of you need to provide some space. Be observant of individual needs. This is understandably a transitional year. Ask if there are any concerns. Best wishes to all and good luck!
